

Quizizz

Name : _____

Class : _____

Latin America Climate/Natural Resources

Date : _____

1. The Northern part of this country is mostly desert and very hot. The beaches on the Gulf of Mexico and Pacific Oceans have a tropical climate. The mountains in the interior of the country have a more mild climate.

- a) Brazil b) Haiti
 c) Venezuela d) Mexico

2. The main natural resource for this country is oil. It makes up 90% of this country's economy.

- a) Venezuela b) Mexico
 c) Brazil d) Panama

3. This country has a tropical climate, but it is kept fairly mild because of the trade winds from the Caribbean Sea and Gulf of Mexico.

- a) Brazil b) Bolivia
 c) Cuba d) Mexico

4. Which of the following natural resources is a main feature in Latin America?

- a) Limestone b) Sugarcane
 c) Oak d) Coal

5. This large South American country has a mostly hot and tropical climate.

- a) Haiti b) Bolivia
 c) Mexico d) Brazil

6. This world leader in oil production has a hot, tropical climate with cooler temperatures in the mountains.

- a) Venezuela b) Brazil
 c) Cuba d) Bolivia

7. One of this country's main natural resources is fish because of it's location between the Caribbean Sea and Gulf of Mexico.
- a) Brazil b) Hawaii
 c) Cuba d) Panama
8. In which Latin American country would you possibly find the best sailors based on geography?
- a) Bolivia b) Inland Brazil
 c) Cuba d) Mexico City
9. Many Latin American countries have a tropical or hot climate because they are near the _____.
- a) South Pole b) Amazon River
 c) Sierra Madre Mountains d) Equator
10. Which of the following countries is Brazil's largest trading partner?
- a) Cuba b) Bolivia
 c) United States d) Russia
11. Which of the following is Venezuela's largest trading partner for oil?
- a) Cuba b) United States
 c) Brazil d) Russia