

History of Canada Graphic Organizer

Canadian Culture

Language:

Religion:

Why does Canada have both French and English influences?

Canadian History (European Settlement)

- Around 1500, explorers from _____ and _____ arrived in Canada.
- The English established _____ and the French called their settlement _____.
- In the 1600s, the first permanent settlement, _____, was established.

So, how did Canada come under British control?

- The British won the _____ and in 1763 took control of _____.
- French settlers were allowed to stay in _____, but the _____ controlled the area.
- The Quebec Act of 1774 allowed the _____ to live the way they wanted to, but it caused _____ between the _____ and _____ settlers

So, how did Canada become independent?

How did Canada become independent from Great Britain?

What does it mean to be a sovereign state?

What does it mean to be a commonwealth?

What evidence remains of British influence in Canadian government?

The Movement for Independence in Quebec Graphic Organizer

BRAINSTORM!

What have you already learned about the history of Canada that could lead to problems between Canadian citizens?

Why did French citizens in Quebec want independence from Canada?

1. What were they afraid of?
2. How did they feel?
3. What do the Separatists want?

How have French Canadians used government, rather than violence to get what they wanted?

What strides have they made towards independence and equality?