

MR. SCHU'S CLASSROOM

RULES, ROUTINES AND EXPECTATIONS

WELCOME TO SIXTH GRADE SOCIAL STUDIES

- I am Mr. Schummers.
 - Where I am from
 - Where I taught
 - Why I love teaching

WHAT WE WILL STUDY

- Europe
- Canada
- Australia
- Latin America

CLASSROOM ROUTINES

1. Arrive on time and be prepared.
2. Come into the classroom quietly and professionally.
3. Check the front table for today's assignment or materials.
4. Take your assigned seat.
5. Put your binder, notebook and pen/pencil on your desk.
6. Find your Warm Up assignment on the front board and begin your work.

STUDENTS WILL...

1. Stay in their seat unless instructed to move.
2. Raise their hand and wait to be called on before talking.
3. Respect each other and teachers.
4. Do their best!
5. Ask for help when they need it.
6. Accept responsibility for their actions.

MR. SCHU WILL...

- 1. Treat each student fairly and equally.
- 2. Do his best to make Social Studies fun.
- 3. Be clear and reasonable when managing the classroom.
- 4. Present different ways to learn.
- 5. Always give you another chance.
- 6. Never give up on you.

PROFESSIONALS IN TRAINING

Congratulations! You are officially a Professional In Training. A professional gets paid for their skills and hired to do whatever it is they do best. These three rules will help you achieve that kind of success no matter what kind of a professional you become.

- Our time is valuable.
- Our actions have consequences.
- We have a job to do.

GRADING (GETTING PAID)

- Homework – 5 % (A nickel – $0.05)
- Quizzes – 30% (Thirty cents - $0.30)
- Classwork – 30% (Thirty cents - $0.30)
- Projects – 35% (Thirty-five cents - $0.35)